Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The people of the state of South Dakota have been fortunate to be the recipients of the endeavors of a special class of individuals devoted to making our state number one in the transportation field; and,

Whereas, Curt D. Wiedman joined that elite group of employees as a Technician II at the Pierre Shop in Pierre, South Dakota, and worked there from January 1, 1970, until May 1, 1974; and,

Whereas, Curt returned to the Department of Transportation after leaving the private sector on February 1, 1977, at the Mission Maintenance Shop in Mission, South Dakota, and has since served the residents of that area, as well as the Winner area, in various positions; and,

Whereas, Curt has, in the course of his career, worked as a Technician II, Highway Maintenance Worker I and II, Highway Maintenance Foreman, and Lead Maintenance Worker, and executed the duties of each position in as superb a manner as humanly possible; and,

Whereas, Curt has now served the people of South Dakota for nearly 37 years, by his ever careful maintenance of the highways in and around Todd County, always exhibiting the qualities of dedication, honor, and integrity; and,

Whereas, Curt has chosen to retire on July 23, 2009, in order to enjoy life without the need of going to work each day:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 23, 2009, as in South Dakota, and I join his co-workers; family, and friends in congratulating him on this well-earned retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
